

Foremost Farms' Extra Sharp Cheddar is Grand Champion at NMPF

November 2011

SAN DIEGO -- Foremost Farms USA's extra sharp cheddar cheese entry, produced at Marshfield, Wis., took top honors in the National Milk Producers Federation's (NMPF) Cheese Competition held this month in San Diego, Calif., during the trade association's joint annual meeting. In addition to the first-place award, cheese produced at Waumandee, Appleton and Clayton also earned recognition.

The results are as follows:

Extra Sharp Cheddar

1st place, Best in Class & Grand Champion
2nd place

Foremost Farms USA – Marshfield
Foremost Farms USA – Waumandee

Mild Cheddar

3rd place

Foremost Farms USA – Marshfield

Soft Italian

2nd place
3rd place

Foremost Farms USA – Appleton
Foremost Farms USA – Clayton

Foremost Farms picks up the Grand Champion Cheese Award at the National Milk Producers Federation Joint Annual Meeting November 13-16. Shown (l-to-r): Jerry Kozak, president and CEO of NMPF; Joe Weis, Foremost Farms vice president-member services and milk marketing, Dave Scheevel, Foremost Farms chairman, Randy Mooney, NMPF chairman.